Seven Faith Practices

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For over 20 years, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) has identified seven faith practices that are key to the life of a Christian disciple. I share this article not only as information about these seven faith practices but also an invitation to develop these God-shaping activities in your life. Included in this article is information taken from the ELCA's website (elca.org). If you visit the website and search – seven faith practices or ministry practices – you will find a wealth of resources and materials related to this topic and the individual faith practices.

Faith practices are God-shaped and God-shaping activities that add up to a way of life. Faith practices come out of Scripture, but are lived out in the world. For those who want to become a part of the way of life called "Christian," faith practices describe the kind of attitudes and actions that make up that life. In his book Thinking the Faith, Douglas John Hall says "a disciple is a learner who explores the meaning of Christ's message. Disciples are people who want to comprehend that which has grasped them as their ultimate concern. Disciple-ship is a decision taken not once, but constantly renewed."

Our Lord commands us to make disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:18-20). As we are called to reach out to people in our communities, our neighbors, and the unchurched, we need to ground ourselves in the Bible, the most basic truths of our Lutheran heritage, and a daily life of following Christ. In doing so, we can energize our entire congregation to share the good news of Jesus Christ with others and to live out their Christian calling to the world. When engaging in faith practices, we seek to be energized by prayerful openness to the leading of the Holy Spirit and use the insights of Lutheran theology as powerful tools for understanding and addressing the needs of society.

So what does it mean to live as a faith-full disciple? What are the actions or activities that help shape disciples on their journeys? One way to understand those actions is to look at them as "faith practices." Five key texts show us God's vision for the faithful disciple in the Lutheran faith tradition. They provide the foundation for the seven basic faith practices.

The prophet Micah summarizes the meaning of the Old Testament first covenant when he asks: "What does the Lord require of you?"

To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God (Micah 6:8).

Jesus summarizes the core of his teaching and his hope for his followers in the Great Commandment and the Great Commission. In response to the question "What is the greatest commandment?" Jesus responded:

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all of your soul and with all of your mind." This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:37).

Jesus' parting instructions to his followers, spoken after his resurrection, were: Go and make disciples, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you (Matthew 28:19-20).

Martin Luther, in his Small Catechism, shared these words as explanation for the Second Article of the Apostles' Creed: I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father in eternity, and also true human being, born of the virgin Mary, is my Lord. He has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person. He has purchased and freed me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil, not with gold or silver but with his holy, precious blood and innocent suffering and death. He has done all this in order that I may belong to him, live under him in his kingdom, and serve him in eternal righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as he is risen from the dead and lives and rules in eternity. This is most certainly true.

For us as Lutheran Christians, the call to discipleship is grounded in Baptism. Discipleship flows from and is daily renewed in our baptismal covenant. From the address to those affirming baptism:

You have made public profession of your faith. Do you intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in Holy Baptism:

- to live among God's faithful people,
- to share his Word and share his supper,
- to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed,
- to serve all people, following the example of our Lord Jesus,
- and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth?

From these biblical and theological foundations we have come to know key faith practices for a faith-filled life as a disciple of Christ Jesus. Followers of Jesus are inspired to develop practices and patterns for living that characterize a life that is devoted to daily disciple-ship. Seven common practices have been identified as key for us to model and nurture.

Pray — Prayer — Pray Frequently

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105).

Worship 🔶 Worship — 🔶 Worship Regularly

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul makes its boast in the LORD; let the humble hear and be glad. O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together (Psalm 34:1-3).

Invite — Fvangelism — Invite Others Often

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" (Romans 10:14-15).

Encourage — Feaching/Mentoring Pass on the Faith

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action (1 John 3:18).

For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many (Mark 10:45).

"...give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back" (Luke 6: 38).

May God provide for each of us, his children, a good measure of wisdom and discipline in order that we might faithfully practice our Godshaping activities each day of our lives.

In His Peace,

Pastor Kristi

Exploring Romans

Paul's letter to the Romans is quite different than any of his other letters, in which he offers pastoral or theological advice to people he knows personally. Paul did not start or plant the church in Rome. In fact at the time the letter was written, Paul had not yet visited Rome. Therefore, in Romans Paul offers more "general" statements about the nature of sin, the promise of salvation, and the call to mission. In other words, Paul addresses many of the important questions that arise when one considers the relationship between God and creation.

We will explore the letter to the Romans in 6 sessions.

Session 3—"If what I do doesn't save me, does it matter how I live?"

A Message from the Church Deacons

The Deacons are adapting a new procedure to develop the usher/reader list for the church year. In conjunction with the Altar Guild and Acolyte schedules, the list has been developed with names and phone numbers for the Sundays in each month.

If the assigned date doesn't work, please arrange a trade for another date that'll work with someone else, preferably from your months.

We have more Sundays than available people, so your name will be on the list multiple times.
